Unite. Cullin Certificate No. 714

The United States of America,

Application No. 4398

For all to whom these presents shall come greeting:

Whereas there has been deposited in the General Land Office of the United States a certificate of the register of the Land Office at Grand Island, Nebraska, whereby it appears that, pursuant to the acts of Congress approved March 3, 1873, March 13, 1874, and June 14, 1878, "To encourage the growing of timber on the western prairies," the claim of Richard Cochring has been established and duly enumerated, in conformity to law, for the South East quarter of Section twelve in Township eleven North of Range fourteen West of the Sixth Principal Meridian in Nebraska containing one hundred and sixty acres according to the official plat of the survey of the said land, returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General: Now known as, that there is, therefore granted by the United States unto the said Richard Cochring the tract of land above described: To have and to hold the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereto, unto the said Richard Cochring and to his heirs and assigns forever.

En testimony whereof I, Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the city of Washington, the twentieth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety two, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and sixtieth.

By the President, Benjamin Harrison
By M. M. Keam, Secretary,
D. P. Roberts, Recorder of the General Land Office.
