The United States of America

To all to whom these presents shall come, greeting.

Whereas, there has been deposited in the General Land Office of the United States a Certificate of the Register of the Land Office at Grand Island Nebraska, whereby it appears that pursuant to the Acts of Congress approved March 3, 1873, March 13, 1874 and June 14, 1878 "To encourage the growth of Timber on the Western Prairies" a claim of Jos Cephas Standley, has been established, and duly consummated in conformity to law, for the South half of the North East quarter of Section One, Township Ten North of Range Thirteen West of the Sixth Principal Meridian in Nebraska, containing eighty acres according to the official plat of the survey of the said land returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General. Now know ye, that there is, therefore granted by the United States unto the said Jos Cephas Standley, the tract of land above described To have and to hold the said tract of land with the appurtenances thereunto the said Jos Cephas Standley and to his heirs and assigns forever. In testimony whereof, I Grover Cleveland President of the United States of America have caused these letters to be made patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand at the City of Washington the thirtieth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty five and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and ninth.

By the President, Grover Cleveland
