CLERK MAGISTRATE

If you have been ordered to take a class as part of your sentence you may access a list of accepted classes in Buffalo County by going to:

www.buffalocounty.ne.gov

In the blue banner that runs across the page, click on County Offices and then you'll click on County Court. The available classes will be listed on the County Court homepage. You are only required to take the classes that are listed on your sentencing order.

Classes available are:

1. Alcohol Education Classes

- a. You must attend a six to eight-hour substance abuse class put on by a certified counselor or Court approved provider.
- b. On-line classes will not be accepted.
- c. There is a class at UNK for registered UNK students only.

2. Driving Classes

3. Victim Impact Panels, also known as MADD – Mothers Against Drunk Drivers

If you have any questions about the classes please contact the court.
