County of Buffalo sell the said premises at public auction to S. W. Lanson for the sum of Three Hundred Twenty Six Dollars, which sale was afterwards at the February term of said Court, A. D. 1893, examined and confirmed and the said John N. Nutter Sheriff of said Buffalo County as such Sheriff ordered to convey the said premises in fee simple to the said S. W. Lanson. Now therefore I the said John N. Nutter, Sheriff of Buffalo County, as aforesaid, in consideration of the premises, and by virtue of the powers vested in me by law, do hereby give, grant and convey to the said S. W. Lanson, his heirs and assigns the premises so as aforesaid sold to-wit: Lots Six Hundred and Fifteen (615) and Six Hundred and Sixteen (616) in the original Town of Kearney Junction now city of Kearney, Buffalo County, Nebraska, with the appurtenances. To have and to hold the same to the said S. W. Lanson his heirs and assigns and to their and their use and behoof forever.

In testimony whereof, I have as such Sheriff hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 15th day of February A. D. 1893.

John W. Blair
Homestead Certificate No. 9074 }
Application 15768 } The United States of America,
To all to whom these presents shall come greeting:
Whereas there has been deposited in the General Land Office of the United States a certificate of the Register of the Land Office at Grand Island, Nebraska whereby it appears that pursuant to the act of Congress approved 20th May 1862, "To secure homesteads to actual settlers on the public domain," and the acts supplemental thereto, the claim of John W. Blair has been established and duly consummated, in conformity to law, for the lots numbered four, five and six of Section Nine and the North West quarter of the North West quarter of Section ten in Township eight, North of Range fourteen West of the Sixth Principal Meridian in Nebraska, containing one hundred and fifty-two acres and forty hundredths of an acre according to the official plat of the survey of the said land, returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General. Now know ye that there is therefore granted by the United States unto the said John N. Blair the tract of land above described.

To have and to hold the said tract of land with the appurtenances thereto, unto the said John N. Blair and to his heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof I, Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand at the city of Washington the twenty second day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety one and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and fiftieth.

By E. O. Seely, Deputy

The United States of America,

To all to whom these presents shall come greeting:

Whereas there has been deposited in the General Land Office of the United States a certificate of the Register of the Land Office at Grand Island, Nebraska, whereby it appears that pursuant to the act of Congress approved 20th May, 1862,

"To secure homesteads to actual settlers on the public domain," and the acts supplemental thereto, the claim of John Teple has been established and duly consummated in conformity to law for the North East quarter of Section eight in Township ten North of Range seventeen West of the Sixth Principal Meridian in Nebraska, containing one hundred and sixty acres according to the official plat of the survey of the said land returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General. Now know ye that there is therefore granted by the United States unto the said John Teple the tract of land above described.

To have and to hold the said tract of land with the appurtenances thereto unto the said John Teple and to his heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof I, Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand at the city of Washington the first day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety one and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and fiftieth.
