The United States of America

To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting.

Whereas there has been deposited in the General Land Office of the United States a Certificate of the Register of the Land Office at Grand Island, Nebraska, whereby it appears that, pursuant to the Act of Congress approved 20th May 1862 "To secure Homesteads to actual settlers on the Public Domain," and the acts supplemental thereto, the claim of Martha A. Reeve has been established and duly consummated in conformity hereto, for the North East quarter of Section thirty in Township nine North of Range eighteen West of the Sixth Principal Meridian in Nebraska containing one hundred and sixty acres according to the Official Plat of the survey of the said Land, returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General

Now know Ye, that there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said Martha A. Reeve the tract of Land above described: To have and to hold the said tract of Land with the appurtenances thereof unto the said Martha A. Reeve and to her heirs and assigns forever.

In Testimony whereof, I, Benjamin Harrison President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the sixteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and sixteenth.
