G. H. Culling

To All to whom these Presents shall Come, Greeting:

Homestead Certificate, No. 4754

APPLICATION: 7236

Whereas, there has been deposited in the General Land Office of the United States a Certificate of the Register of the Land Office at Grand Island Nebraska whereby it appears that, pursuant to the act of Congress, approved 20th May, 1862, "To secure homesteads to actual settlers on the public domain," and the acts supplemental thereto, the claim of Morris Stearley has been established and duly consummated in conformity to law, for the

Lot's numbered Seven Eight-and-nine of Section twenty Seven in Township Nine north of Range Thirteen west of the sixth principal meridian in Nebraska containing one hundred and thirty five acres and two hundredths of an acre

according to the Official Plat of the survey of the said land, returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General:

Now Know Ye, That there is therefore granted by the United States unto the said Morris Stearley the tract of land above described, to have and to hold the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said Morris Stearley and to his heirs and assigns forever.

In Testimony Whereof, I Chester A. Arthur President of the United States of America have caused these letters to be made patent, and the Seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my Hand, at the City of Washington, the twentieth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and eighth

By the President Chester A. Arthur

By O. L. Judd Asst. Secretary.
