

Buffalo County Website Accessibility Statement

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 generally requires that state and local governments provide qualified individuals with disabilities equal access to their programs, services, or activities unless doing so would fundamentally alter the nature of their programs, services or activities or would impose an undue hardship. One way to meet this requirement is to ensure that our website has accessible features for people with disabilities.

Policy Statement

Buffalo County is committed to ensure that all citizens of Buffalo County regardless of ability or access method can access our website. To confirm our commitment, all of our IT staff is and will continue to be trained on website accessibility. Buffalo County will run periodic compliance checks and violations will be corrected to the best of our ability. Upon request, all information on our website can be made available in alternate formats to meet the needs of individuals with disabilities.

It is important to us that every citizen has equal access to information provided by Buffalo County. If anyone has difficulty accessing information on our website, please contact the ADA Coordinator.
